Cabells on Trip

The Deputy Director, Central Intelligence, Lt. Gen. Charles P. Cabell, and Mrs. Cabell left early this week for the West Coast and Canada. With them went their son, Charles, jr., and daughter, Catherine, together with Mrs. Donald Dunford, sister of Mrs. Cabell.

After a visit in Dallas, Tex., with Gen. Cabell's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Cabell, the general will return to Washington with his son, who enters West Point July 6. The rest of the family will go on to Canada. Before they return at the end of July they will stay some time with Mrs. Franklin deHymel of Pasadena, Calif., mother of Mrs. Cabell and Mrs. Dunford.

Before going West, Gen. and Mrs. Cabell entertained at dinner for other friends who are leaving shortly. In the company were Maj. Gen. and Mrs. Garrison, H. Davidson, Maj. Gen. and Mrs. James F. Collins, and Col. and Mrs. Dunford, of Totten Island, N. Y.

Gen. and Mrs. Davidson leave July 14 for Fort Leavenworth, Kans., where he will be commandant, Command and General Staff School. They expect to be well settled in their new quarters before their children scatter. Gary enters Cornell University this fall. Tom goes to The Hill School, Pottstown, Pa.; Skipper will attend school at Fort Leavenworth, and small Linda will be the only one to remain at home.

Gen. and Mrs. Collins are in the throes of packing. Their calendar has hardly any space clear, right up to August 1, when they leave for Alaska.
